VALIDITY Group Sdn Bhd announces appointment of Malaysia Country Manager.

Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia. December 9, 2015.

VALIDITY Group is delighted to announce the appointment of Mr Eng Weng Lim as Country Manager for Malaysia. Our selection of Lim was as a result of a very rigorous process. We wanted to ensure that all our Malaysian clients would have the opportunity to work with a highly experienced business leader who has a deep knowledge and understanding of the Malaysian business scene.

Since 1975, Lim has accumulated over 40 years of business leadership skills and extensive experience across a number of diverse industries. These include Life Insurance, Fire-Fighting, Hardware, Courier Services, Office Automation, High Tech IT Products and Training and Development. His 40-plus years of experience encompass personal engagements successfully gained from the Government, Education Institutions, Finance, Banking, Oil & Gas and Commercial markets throughout his remarkable career.

Lim was a Senior Executive with Xerox Malaysia for 10 years and Managing Director of Ricoh Malaysia for 20 years. He has held a range of senior business leader positions including Key Account Manager, Product Manager, National Sales Manager and General Manager roles. It is Lim's in-depth knowledge of Malaysian business that ensures that all our clients are working with someone who possesses enormous personal experience, insights and abilities in senior business leadership roles within Malaysia. He has worked with 25 CEO's from various industries and he has personally coached and mentored many of them.

Lim's appointment as VALIDITY Group's Country Manager for Malaysia ensures that all our Malaysian friends have a local senior executive with whom they can work and who can support all Malaysian businesses in their continued development and success.

VALIDITY Group remains committed to Malaysia and is delighted to appoint a leading Malaysian business professional who will continue to develop solutions and relationships that will deliver significant benefits to the business community of Malaysia.
